

Engineering Deployment Policy

Production deployments use a blue-green rollout.

A release starts with five percent canary traffic.

If error rate exceeds one percent, rollback begins immediately.

Traffic returns to the previous environment during rollback.

Cross-service rollout changes require architecture review approval.