

HR PTO Policy

Employees receive twenty days of paid time off each year.

Up to five unused days may carry into the next calendar year.

Additional carryover requires written HR approval.

Hybrid employees may work remotely three days each week.

Full remote arrangements require vice president approval.